

Permission to Publish

Dear Parents/Guardians,

As part of your son's/daughter's educational program at Elementary School District 20, he/she may have the opportunity to publish documents or participate in projects on the World Wide Web. Your son/daughter may also be recognized for his/her participation in school-related activities or scholastic accomplishments. Participating in live videoconferences is another opportunity that will be available in the District's educational program. We believe that these are exciting and enriching activities that will greatly enhance students' learning experiences.

The Web Guidelines for Elementary School District 20 include the following:

1. Published documents or videoconferences may not include a students' last name, phone number, home address, or names (other than first names) of family members.
2. The District will only publish school e-mail addresses and not private e-mail addresses.
3. Documents of videoconferences may not include any information regarding the physical location of a student at a given time other than attendance at a particular school or participation in school activities.
4. Documents or video conferences may not contain objectionable material or point directly to objectionable material.
5. All Web content published on the District's site must conform to school board policies, established school guidelines, and the District's Acceptable Use Policy.

We will publish these documents only with your written permission. Please consider the following options, and, after completing this form, return it to your child's teacher. Thank you for your cooperation.

I hereby give my release of all copyright and/or other interests the student or I may have in this work to the District. I acknowledge that by publishing this work it will become the District's property and I will waive any rights of copyright as found at Section 106 of the Copy Right Act of 1976 and hereafter amended; including, but not limited to, reproduction, derivative works, distribution, and public display.
