

Jesse White

Illinois Secretary of State

appearing at

Spring Wood Middle School

November 28, 2007

7:30 PM

Join us for an evening with Jesse White and

the opportunity to CELEBRATE the achievements of Greenbrook School

Jesse White has been a professional baseball, a school teacher and administrator, a paratrooper, a member of the Illinois General Assembly for 16 years, the Cook County Recorder of Deeds and the founder of the world renown Jesse White Tumbling Team. He has served as the Secretary of State for Illinois since 1998.

Jessie White will speak to District #20 parents on how they can best support the development of their children.

Sponsored by the District #20 AAPC
(African American Parent Committee)